MEDICINAL. TEARFUL OR CHEERFUL?

Whether a woman is tearful or cheerful depends not on what she has materially, but on what she has mentally. Many an indulgent husband is driven almost to despair by the tearful who has "everything she wants." He wants to know what's the matter. But the wife can't tell. She only knows that she is depressed and despondent.

Such a condition is usually related to some form of womanly disease.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Mrs. Alice Adams, of Washington, D. C., writes: "With many thanks I write to you how I am well. I have taken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and two of his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I can do all my work. I can't praise your medicine too highly. I will recommend your medicine as long as I live. If any one doubts this give them my address."

Keep the bowels healthy by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

HORRORS OF BALKAN WAR.

A dispatch from Monastir says that the once beautiful city of Krushevo is a heap of ruins. The women and children are homeless, exposed to the weather and famine. The town is rendered uninhabitable by the odor of corpses, which are being gnawed by dogs and pigs, the Turkish authorities refusing to allow them to be removed under the pretense that an inquest will be held.

Krushevo is situated on the summit of a hill, eight hours distant and to the northwest of Monastir. It contained 2,000 houses and 10,000 inhabitants, mostly Vlachs, calling themselves Greeks. There were only 100 poor Bulgarian houses. The Vlachs are prosperous merchants who travel abroad on business, leaving their families in Krushevo. After making fortunes abroad by their diligence and economy, they return to spend their wealth in Krushevo, where they own fine houses, furniture and jewels. The Turkish inhabitants of the surrounding villages have long envied the prosperity of Krushevo.

The Macedonian Committee, in concert with Bulgarian bands, has been completing arrangements during several months with a view to occupying the town. In July last the authorities of Krushevo, observing the threatening movement, begged the val of Monastir to send reinforcements, as the garrison of 30 soldiers was insufficient to cope with an insurgent attack. These warnings were ignored.

On August 2, the day fixed for the Bulgarian attack on Krushevo, while four marriages were being celebrated in the Greek Church, a number of Komitajis, by prearrangement, remained hidden in the church and were locked in by the sacristan on the conclusion of the ceremonies. At 10 o'clock at night they sounded an alarm by ringing the church bells. Simultaneously a band of 800 hundred insurgents, headed by Petroff, entered the town, discharging their rifles.

The terrified inhabitants remained indoors. The band first burned the residence of the Mudir and massacred the garrison of Turkish soldiers and the officials of the town, but the invaders spared the Turkish harems.

On the following morning the Komitajis established a provisional government and instituted a new police and municipality. They killed 10 Christians, who they believed had betrayed the plans of the committee. The notables of the town were compelled to contribute $10,000 to the revolutionary fund. The Bulgarian villagers in the neighborhood, hearing that Krushevo was in the hands of the insurgents, entered the town and demanded ammunition, which, however, was unobtainable.

The provisional government constructed a rampart inclosing the town, and the inhabitants were ordered to melt down their spoons to make bullets.

The Turks, informed of the capture of the town, sent from Perlepe three squadrons of cavalry, which were attacked en route and compelled to retire with a loss of 100 killed.

On August 13 the Turks concentrated seven battalions and one battery on Krushevo. They made an offer to the Komitajis to allow the women and children to leave the town.

This proposal was declined, and the bombardment began. The Komitajis quickly abandoned the town and escaped to the neighboring forest, where pursuit was impossible.

The Turks entered the town, and guided by Turkish villagers from the neighborhood attacked the houses of the Greek notables and ordered the inmates to be searched and stripped. They seized the money and jewels and ravished the women, those who resisted being immediately killed. A Greek priest who sought to protect his daughter, was killed. The girl's earnings were torn out and her hands were chopped off to secure the bracelet.

When the houses had been pillaged the Turkish peasants loaded their horses with whatever the soldiers left, and the residences were burned. The sack of Krushevo lasted three days, during which time the women and children remained without food and shelter and at the mercy of the soldiers and the bushi-bazouks.

A revolutionary band has appeared at the village of Tcherkeskoj, between Adrianople and Constantinople, within six hours of the Sultan's capital. The insurgents and Turks fought and afterwards the Circassian inhabitants of the village pillaged and destroyed three Bulgarian villages in the neighborhood, killing all the men, women and children except a few who escaped to the mountains.

THE ZIONIST CONGRESS.—At yesterday's session of the Zionist Congress at Basel, Switzerland, Dr. Herzl, the president, submitted to the delegates a letter which he had received from the Russian minister of the interior, Von Plehwe, apparently pledging the support of the Russian government to the Zionists in their movement to establish an independent State in Palestine. The Minister in the letter referred to said his government was quite favorable to the original programme of Zionism, which could rely upon its moral and material support when its practical measures tended to decrease the Jewish population of Russia. Such support might take the form of supporting the Zionist demands on the Ottoman government and helping the Jewish emigration societies by co-operating with the Jews who were contributing to the necessities of these societies. The Russian government, the Minister adds, had been obliged to act toward the Jewish question as the interests of the State required, but it had never deviated from the great principles of morality and humanity. It had recently enlarged the rights of residence in the Jewish region,

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with a letter from the doctor, and I took it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege woman can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish cares and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer from miscarriages nor does a woman who is healthy suffer from childbearing. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

and he hoped nothing would prevent the development of such measures tending to improve the conditions of the existence of the Russian Jews, especially if emigration decreased their number.
